Reminders:

- Heading into this season, there will be lots of special activities. Please make sure to check the Upcoming Events calendar each week in order to know what is coming up.
- If you will be picking your student up early from school, PLEASE make sure to send in a note or contact us. If we know they will be gone, we can plan accordingly. When someone leaves unexpectedly, they miss important material and assignments, which may have been able to be completed earlier in the day or sent home.
